

Holmes publishes article in *Employee Benefit Plan Review

David M. Holmes (Managing Partner-Chicago) and Anjali C. Das (Partner-Chicago) gave presentations at the Lorman Education Services “Update on Insurance Issues in Illinois” on March 5, 2008. The event was conducted at the Holiday Inn William Tell, Countryside, IL.

David spoke about issues of general liability and employment. His specific presentation topics covered general liability policy issues in construction accidents, the duty to defend and act in good faith, and emerging issues in employment cases.

Anjali gave a presentation on directors and officers insurance. It included an analysis of recent court decisions addressing the scope of coverage for restitutionary-type damages, the impact of the federal Sarbanes-Oxley Act on securities class actions, and the stock options backdating scandal.
