Partners Harold J. Moskowitz, Perry I. Kreidman and Scott R. Schaffer of the New York office will give a two-hour seminar on Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) on Wednesday, April 25, 2007, at the Bermuda Insurance Institute (BII) in Bermuda. The seminar is designed for brokers, underwriters, captive managers, lawyers, accountants, bankers and others in the financial services industry who need to know or want to learn more about ADR.

The seminar will introduce the basics of negotiation, mediation and arbitration, and provide a detailed discussion on various ADR topics. The discussions will also refer to actual examples of how ADR has been utilized to resolve insurance and reinsurance disputes, including some stemming from Hurricane Katrina. For additional details on seminar topics and registration, please click here.

If you are interested in this topic, but will be unable to attend, Harold, Perry or Scott will be happy to send you their presentation materials after the event. Please contact them at harold.moskowitz@wilsonelser.com, perry.kreidman@wilsonelser.com, or scott.schaffer@wilsonelser.com.